SilverMAX Gel Season is here. Big SAVINGS this month!

The spring and summer seasons are upon us. That means more outdoor activities, more skin exposure and lots of reasons to have SilverMAX™ gel on hand at all times.

SilverMAX first aid gel is safe, non-toxic, odorless, non-greasy and child friendly. This homeopathic first aid gel is so effective for such a broad spectrum of minor wounds, you can use it to REPLACE your over-the-counter (OTC) antiseptic cream, burn spray, calamine lotion, and acne cream.

SilverMAX gel provides fast healing of minor cuts, scrapes, burns, insect bites, bruises, minor skin infections, acne, and more. When these little issues arise, provide the soothing care they need with our Topical First Aid Gel.

It works in four ways:

- Reduces topical pain
- Calms minor skin inflammation
- Fights skin infection
- Promotes topical healing

This product has such a wide variety of applications that we encourage you to always keep a bottle in your home, at your place of work, in your purse or business bag, and in your gym bag or luggage. And to help you do that, we're offering you very special savings this month only.

Get 2 bottles for just $38.95!

That's a retail value of $65 you get for just $19.48 per bottle. Simply order ITEM #1623 to claim these special savings. But don't delay - this opportunity expires on April 30th.

THE XOOMA DIFFERENCE

There are hundreds of active companies in the direct selling industry around the world every year. Sadly, the vast majority of those companies start and go out of business within 5 years or less. And yet, at Xooma, our journey in this industry started in 1993 and we are still growing and thriving today - over 30 years later!

So, what allows us to be one of the very few companies that has stood the test of time? We call it the Xooma difference. What makes us different is also what allows YOU to personally achieve success while proudly helping others do the same!

SMART TIP

Are you getting enough?

Your body is a complex machine that requires various forms of 'fuel' each day for you to survive and thrive. Water, minerals, vitamins, protein, and other forms of fuel are needed by your body daily. But, are you getting enough?

The easiest example is water. To support the foundational needs your body has on a daily basis, most wellness experts recommend consuming half your body weight in ounces of water each day. In other words, if you weigh 200 pounds, your ideal level of water consumption would be 100 ounces per day.

Unfortunately, far too many people consume less than their ideal daily amount of water which is why X20 becomes so important for all of us. By adding X20 to your water each day, you'll maximize the amount of hydration you get from every ounce you drink – even if you don't always consume the ideal daily amount. That's why you should always use an X20 sachet in every bottle (glass) of water you drink.

And since we're on the topic of X20, let's talk about minerals. Yes, every bottle of X20 water contains an impressive spectrum of easy-to-absorb trace minerals. These trace minerals can make a significant positive difference in the way you feel each day...but what if you're not getting enough?

If you are already mineral deficient, that X20 sachet may not be able to provide all the minerals your body needs each day. That's why many people have discovered the benefits of adding X20Plus capsules to their evening regimen. For those who need more minerals in their body, this product has not only made a big difference in their health results, but it's also helped many people improve their nightly sleep experience.

This same question of "are you getting enough" can be applied to most Xooma products. For example, if your inflammation problems are not improving with 2 capsules of KardiaXyme per day, adding just 1 more capsule to your daily regimen may be all it takes to transform the way you feel.

What about your energy levels? If it seems like your energy levels are too low, or your focus & concentration still needs improvement, you may just need another capsule (or two) or one more drink stick of FocusUP that day.

If you sit down to enjoy that delicious steak dinner, large pizza or that rich pasta meal but you don't feel so great when you're done eating...you might need two Assimilator capsules instead of one to help your body break down and digest all that food.

Or, perhaps that infection you're fighting in your body requires that you use just a little more SilverMAX each day to help your immune system win the battle and get you back to feeling great again.

As human beings, there is never a 'one size fits all' solution to our nutritional needs. That's why it's important to try different dosage levels of Xooma's products to determine what works best for YOU. If you're currently using a Xooma product that you want to see MORE results from, it could be as simple as adding just one more capsule, tablet, drink stick or sachet of that product to your daily regimen. While it's simple and easy to do, the difference it could make in your health could be incredible.

If your personal health is not quite at the level you want, ask yourself this: *Are you getting enough?
