If you're like many people in today's society, you probably drink water because you know it's critically important for your health and well-being. If you've joined this fast growing global trend of "water drinkers," chances are it's more for the health potential than it is for the taste of water.

Thanks to Xooma Worldwide's, premier product, Xtreme X20, you can transform your water into a powerful health beverage which hydrates, mineralizes, and revitalizes your body better than anything else on the market-period. And while we're excited about the crisp, clean taste Xtreme X20 gives to water, we know some people just don't like to drink plain (unflavored) water.

Knowing this, we set out to create the world's first 100% all natural water flavoring product. We not only wanted you to enjoy the numerous health benefits of our original product, Xtreme X20, but we wanted to give you an easy and enjoyable way to drink MORE WATER.

Introducing... X20 BLAST!!

Look how X20 BLAST compares with other popular beverages marketed toward kids.

"Nearly two-thirds of Americans are concerned about the safety of artificial sweeteners such as sucralose and aspartame."

- Mintel Research Group

Now, you can transform your water even further with a "blast" of flavor while you provide powerful antioxidant protection for your entire body. Instead of those sugary drinks that are filled with artificial sweeteners, colors, flavoring, and other chemicals, you can now enjoy the benefit of a great tasting beverage that is 100% natural.

X20 BLAST comes in a small "pocket size" packet. They are easy to carry and ready to use when you are. X20 BLAST also allows you to choose your own flavor strength. For a lighter flavor,

"Increased intake of sugar-sweetened drinks results in greater weight gain and greater risk of obesity in children and adults."

- Harvard School of Public Health / American Journal of Clinical Nutrition start with HALF of the packet in 24oz. (750 mL) of water. For a stronger flavor, continue to add more X20 BLAST to achieve your desired taste.

X20 BLAST is perfect for children and teens. Forget those sugary beverages that are full of calories and lead to weight problems. Parents can now feel good about giving their children a beverage that is 100% natural!! X20 BLAST has all the taste kids crave with none of the worry or guilt for Moms and Dads who are concerned about their children's health.
