

Xooma Spotlight on...two success stories

Rose Paterek

If you haven't heard about Rose Paterek yet, well, she's pretty amazing. Rose started using Xooma's products about three years ago... and now takes X2O™, KardiaXyme™, MetaboWize™ Protein Fiber Shake (tropical vanilla!), RevitalMind™ and Assimilator™. Today, she is quite an advocate, for X2O in particular.

At the ripe young age of 99 years...really entering her 100th year...we are thinking Rose may be Xooma's oldest Member!

Rose is fortunate to have a great health & nutrition consultant and Xooma Member, Mary Beth Lodge. But Mary Beth shares more than just healthy knowledge and Xooma products...since Rose is her mother!

If you haven't seen Rose's joyful video testimony about how much she loves X2O, you'll want to check it out. Search for "Rose Paterek" on Xooma's My Story App (mystory.xoomaworldwide.com) to hear her delightful testimonial and many others from Xooma Members around the globe.

JD Wilson

About a year and a half ago, JD started having blood sugar problems. He was prescribed diabetic medication and has now been on it for over 2 years. Yet he watched his blood sugar numbers continue to go up, even with all the medication he was taking.

JD is thankful for the visit he got from the Griffin Brothers, good friends and Xooma Members in North Carolina. A few months ago they left him some sample packages of X2O. After they left, he pushed them aside on his desk. Well, two weeks later his blood sugar level reached 300 and the doctors wanted to put him on insulin. Not only that, his blood pressure had gone up.

He was sent to a diabetic course. JD remembers it was a Tuesday night, and when they tested his A1C

Do You Suffer From I.D.D.?

If your results in your Xooma business aren't where you want them to be, you might be suffering from "Intention Deficit Disorder."

Intention Deficit Disorder occurs when you have no real clarity about WHAT result you intend to produce and (even more importantly) WHY you want to produce it.

You see, many people spend all their time searching wildly for "how to" advice, yet neglect strengthening their "want to." And that, is a big mistake.

level it was 11.8. Friday night of that same week, Ronnie Webb came to town to visit someone. When he came to JD's house, one of the things he said was, "Just try Xooma for 120 days."

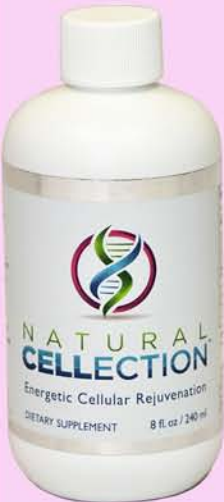

The diabetic class was 4 weeks long. Over the next 3 weeks JD lost 20 pounds. But it was at the end of the class when something amazing happened. They took JD's A1C level again, and it was 7.8.

The same doctor who took his A1C at the beginning, when it was 11.8, sat down next to him and asked this question. "JD, what are you doing differently besides your medication?" He says he was kind of floored. So he asked her, "Why do you ask me that question?" She said, "Because I know the medication you're taking will not help you that much." JD says, "That's what really opened my eyes about the Xooma products and what they can do."

JD now also takes FocusUP™ and he says his energy level is through the roof. His blood pressure has come down. And his blood sugar levels have gone down so nicely, he has to watch that they don't get too low!

JD has only been using Xooma products for approximately 3 months. He's more than 30 pounds lighter...and still dropping weight. And in his words, "It's amazing what Xooma has done for my health."

Now, don't get us wrong. Knowing how to do what it is you want to get done is important. But succeeding in your Xooma business requires a strong intention to succeed. That's why you must have both the how to and the want to.

The "want to" is often the most important component of your success, because to succeed at anything you have to want it. But most new entrepreneurs overlook this simple fact. And when they are confronted with the fact that their actions suggest they don't want to succeed they often get depressed and lose hope. They start believing there is something wrong with them.

But there is nothing wrong with them. All they need is to increase their level of desire. Anyone can do it. And everyone needs to do it from time to time. Because the desire to succeed isn't a permanent thing. Desire and intention are living, growing, ever-changing energy sources inside you. And with practice you can learn to continuously grow them to any degree you desire.

So, why do you want your Xooma business to succeed? What good things will it do for you?

Why do I want this to succeed?

If you don't have great answers to the above two questions, you're better off taking the day off today, go for a long walk and come up with as many answers as you can to "Why do I want this to succeed?" Your answer should be a list of benefits that'll accrue to you and your family by you succeeding in your business.

Once you've strengthened your resolve by clearly identifying all the benefits you really want, there's just one more step to make today an awesome business building day. And that's to answer this simple question...

What's my intention today?
